

The Wide Open Door

This is a publication that is designed to examine some of the aspects of the nature of God. It includes considerations on how God feels about you. It begins from the platform that there are some things about Him that are misunderstood by us. It is not real wordy and includes several sections for discovery from the Bible. This is a place for you to consider some things about God that you may not have thought of very much before.

Here is the outline:

- I. The Way Life Is
- II. The Way God Is
- III. The Way I Am
- IV. The Way To Spiritual Life
- V. The Way In The Garden
- VI. The Way For Me

This is not a book. It is a discovery tool designed to be interactive and discussed with someone. It is recommended that you meet with our contact person to discuss the contents.

We are not a church, club, or a cult. We exist to share the treasure we have found with others. No strings are attached. This website and it's activities are NOT functions of any church, pastor or denomination.

This is not an attempt to solicit anything from you or get you to sign anything. This site has no link to Facebook or any other interactive Web tool. If you don't already know us and want to meet to interact about The Wide Open Door we will meet you at a safe, public place where you are comfortable and we try to meet with persons of the same gender.

We work hard at listening to your thoughts on the material and though we would like you to cross through the Wide Open Door into an exciting new spiritual adventure (if you haven't already) we will in no way pressure or badger you to do so. We are perfectly able to agree to disagree if it comes to that and walk away as new friends.

God bless you as you consider looking into the call to freedom from prison.
